General Villa, at Head of 60,000 Men. Is Advancing Agains Carranza Forces In Three Divisions and Warfare Begins

WASHINGTON, November 21.

—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) — The Mexican situation becomes each day more and more confused and hopeless. There appears to be no close connection between the various generals of either side and no plans beyond a general slaughter. Practical anarchy prevalls in the City of Mexico. with an attenuated police force making slight pretense of guarding life and property and bands of armed desperadoes roving almost at will in many sections of the capital. All the government offices have been vacated and General Obregon has led all the soldiers still loyal to Carranza out of the city.

VILLA LEADS REBEL FORCE

"Provisional President" Gutierrez has announced that he has decided to retain Villa at the head of the forces of the convention, and a number of columns of these troops, aggregating sixty thousand, are now advancing against those positions held by the Carranzaists. One force, led by Villa in person, is advancing against the City of Mexico. Another has for its objective the city of Guadalajara." A third is approaching Tampico. Villa expects to reach the vicinity of the ipital practically unopposed
